

Safe Harbor for Forward Looking Statements

All information provided on social media or within press releases, posted statements or information displayed on website (s) are for informational purposes. EDUCATION BASED CONSULTANTS OF AMERICA LLC (EBCAmerica LLC) does not provide investment nor legal advice and all statements individually offered by Dr. Abe Johnson JUD does not necessarily reflect pending decision by the Boards of Directors or Trustees of any of the nonprofits aforementioned.

Statement related to potential world events, project funding, financial statements, etc., are personal opinions and should be independently verified before acting upon them. Statements related to ABRAHAMIC FAMILY TRUST (AFT) its future plans, funding expectations, timing of prospects for national and global intentions to release funding are forward looking statements and are subject to material risk and uncertainty. Therefore, many factors could affect our current expectation and actual results and could cause actual results to differ materially from what was previously stated. Before taking actions on any press release or other financial statements, please consult with your personal financial or legal professional, for advice, before signing a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU). AFT nor the LLC undertake any duty to update any statements, in light of any new information or changes in future events.

We regret that we are not able to accept funding request regarding international organizations for donations, aid or gifts: Nonetheless, our general counsel (corporate lawyer) has advised our organization team and affiliate organization team members against funding or participating in any fund raising activities for any organization legal status originating outside the USA/Canada or its territories.

[] References:

- Department of Homeland Security: <https://www.dhs.gov/>
- Report: <https://www.dhs.gov/xlibrary/assets/implementing-9-11-commission-report-progress-2011.pdf>